The reference OGC memo describes the previous PSI-generated correspondence as "not responsive." I have utilized the gist of PSI's remarks in this current attempt, but most of the response attempts to be responsive to a rather nebulous question: "What info is available publically" depends for the most part on who the subject is (i.e. R. M. Nixon or an 18-year-old female in a rural town). Should this response not accurately reflect D/Security's wishes, please provide guidance.

This also should be re-coordinated with

PSI.

I can't fault this from a substantive standpoint. I find the wording in some difficult to follow, but it does not change the outcome. I think I were hopeful of getting something in the "quasi-public" area, but OGC does not leave us much room for that. I interpose no objection to this response from the standpoint of

DD/PSI

CIO/PS/PSI
